FIVE CENTS

THE RED DANGER GROWS

By Merwin K. Hart
President, National Economic Council
From Council letter No. 369

On the evening of October 14, 1953, there was a meeting of the German-English Society of Frankfurt, Germany. About a hundred German intellectuals from the professions and business made up the audience.

The guest speaker was Mr. Donald McLachlan, political editor of the Economist well known British magazine. He proceeded to look down his nose at this polite and intelligent German audience, and practically told them off on a number of problems. He also told off certain American groups for whom he obviously had contempt. He abhorred "McCarthyism."

His manner suggested a haughty Britisher of the story-book type speaking at the turn of the Century when Britain was at the height of her power. He urged "a reasonable understanding with Red China," and that Russian forces should leave Europe, but obviously could not until American forces leave.

The Mayor of another German city had brought me as his guest, and before the meeting started he introduced me to the presiding officer.

Meyer Kestnbaum, Jew, Chairman Commission of Intergovernment Relations chats with Eisenhower and the other members of the Commission. The Commission's report said the high cost of government makes it impossible to eliminate overlapping Federal and Local taxes.

had "many friends in the State Department," and that liberalism was suffering greatly in America because apparently certain people there disagreed with our State Department and its foreign policy. I told him I thought that libertarianism rather than liberalism is what is important. He snarled, "What's libertarianism?" I said I thought it was exemplified by an Englishman like Sir Ernest Benn, who founded the British Society of Individualists. McLachlan replied: "Benn is a crackpot!"

Here was an editor of an influential magazine in a country playing down the communist danger in a speech to earnest, eager Germans whose country had suffered horribly from communist infiltration. It didn't "set" well with that German audience.

All this came back to me the other day when an Australian Royal Commission disclosed that Vladimir Petrov, who had defected from the Soviet Embassy in Australia, revealed that the British career diplomats, Maclean and Burgess, who suddenly vanished from Britain in May of 1951 and later turned up in Soviet Russia, had all along been communist spies. They had worked for the Soviets ever since they were at Cambridge University 20 years before. Maclean occupied the American Desk in the British Foreign Office and probably knew everything the State Department knew. And just as surely he passed it on to Moscow. It was long known in the British Foreign Office that they were active spies, habitual drunkards and homosexuals. Did Britain fail to expose these men because higher ups might be involved?

The Strength Of Communism

(This revealing article was submitted by a reader. Beyond question this is the result of much research by a scholarly person, hence we publish it as a matter of information to our readers.)

When the Communists first came to power in Russia, back in 1917, it was generally known both in Europe and America, that the men who had brought about the revolution, and were then ruling in Russia, were Jews. Before long, however, wealthy and influential Jews in this country determined that such an awareness might well prove disastrous to the cause of Judaism. And thus it happened that Jewish pressure forced all intelligent appraisal of Communism to go underground. Nevermore was it mentioned in our press, our books, our pulpits, or even in our fiery soapbox warnings against the Communist menace, that Communism was a movement fostered and vitalized by the Jews.

The burying of this fact was the opportunity for Communism's spread. The Christian world was deceived into regarding it as simply a bad philosophy, or an undesirable economic system. The result? In less than forty years, Communism, by political conquest, has become the ruler of half the people of the world, and as an intellectual force, has insinuated itself into the policies and programs that govern most of the other half.

All of the conventional, facile explanations, such as the persuasiveness of Karl Marx's writings, or the military potential of the Russian people, or the general discontent of the working classes, fail to explain the dynamic and immediate filtering of Communism into every quarter of the globe. The only sufficient explanation, and the true one, is this: Communism was diffused by means of that ancient, international network, the Jewish people.

MERWIN K. HART

To my surprise when the speaker finished, the chairman called on me as a visiting American. I referred to America's experience with communist infiltration over many years past and observed that perhaps America had realized the dangers of communism to a greater extent than Britain. I added that we in America could not understand why Churchill had refused to appoint a Royal Commission to investigate communism, as some Britishers had urged.

My remarks angered the speaker who was on his feet again in an instant. He was affronted that anybody should be allowed to speak there but himself. He said that he

Washington had always been puzzled as to how Moscow learned that Washington had promised London under no circumstances to attack Red China. So Red China attacked us in Korea with relative impunity. For this criminal stupidity of Britain as well as America, 20,000 additional American youth laid down their lives. And America lost the war to boot. Unquestionably Soviet influence had a part in insisting through London, that MacArthur be fired in 1951.

Often, as when Eisenhower changed his mind and went to Geneva last July. American foreign policy has been dictated by the British Foreign Office. Yet for some reason the British had never taken communism seriously. Some years ago, when Gouzenko, the Soviet code clerk, defected, Canada set up a Royal Commission [a rarely used but greatly respected British institution], which presently revealed startling communist infiltration both in Canada and the United States. Australia, as we say, also set up a Royal Commission. But British Governments, both Labor and Conservative, were not bright enough to look into things in their own country.

And so American boys died by the thousand. And Britishers too.

And there in Frankfurt on October 14th, one of Britain's best known publicists was asserting that harm had been done by the investigation of certain American "liberals," and insulted the memory of one of the most distinguished British libertarians, Sir Ernest Benn, who has since died.

The Englishman, Kenneth de Courcy, in his Weekly Review of September 20 last said,

"The Foreign Office lied to the public. It said that Burgess and Maclean had passed the security tests. It is now forced to admit that this was a lie."

This British fiasco affects America, too. For one of the obsessions of Washington, carefully nurtured by indirect communist intrigue, is that we can't work alone—that we and other nations are "interdependent": we must share our secrets with our ever-loving "allies"—especially Britain. In 1954, the palace guard at the White House considered it important to destroy completely—if they could—the political influence of Senator Joseph R. McCarthy. In 1950 and 1952 he had been their greatest political campaigner. Did they fear he might expose men who were high in the Roosevelt-Truman Administrations, many of whom were carried over into this one?

The startling evidence of the weak policy of the United States toward communism includes the following:

1. The fact that the Administration was unable to make indictments stick against Owen Lattimore, one of the chief architects of this Government's betrayal of China to Soviet Russia; the fact that the presiding judge refused to disqualify himself when requested by the Department of Justice since he had caused the failure of the first trial, but insisted upon sitting in the second trial; and the fact that Johns Hopkins University took Lattimore back after the government officially abandoned the prosecution.

2. That "intellectual terrorism" can be alleged by some 80 prominent intellectuals, some of them with communist front records, some of them Bishops of Protestant churches—men seemingly more interested in protecting persons accused as communists than in preserving the American Republic.

3. The fact that 360 "notables" (94 of them ministers and rabbis and 87 educators) were bold enough in late September to sign a brief urging the U. S. Supreme Court to void the Internal Security Act of 1950. The list included many of the most blatant pro-communists and "liberals" in the country.

4. The present trouble in the Near East because Truman and the United Nations saw to the dismembering of Palestine in 1948, where Soviet Russia, through one or more of its satellites, is shipping arms to Egypt and probably to Saudi Arabia. American vital interests were ruthlessly violated when a million Arabs were routed out of their homes in 1948 and sent into miserable exile.

Of course Soviet Russia will send arms there. We alienated 30 million Arabs and 300 million Moslems, who formerly had been friendly. What other result can we expect? Ten to one, that intervention in Palestine will lose the Middle East to Soviet Russia.

5. The ignoble cease-fire in Korea in 1953, followed by our agreement to the surrender of Northern Indo-China, with its millions of Christians, to Soviet Russia.

6. The yielding by the President to the holding of the Soviet-planned conference at Geneva last July. The glad-handing and toasting and "smiling" at this conference was used by the Soviets to show the millions of Soviet slaves that the Western allies were friendly, not to the slaves, but to the Soviet over-lords.

7. And the crowning folly—the proposal of September 29 by the United States, Britain and France to give guarantees to Soviet Russia that a united Germany will never attack the Soviets. This would write finis to any hopes of liberation of the hundreds of millions in countries absorbed by Soviet Russia. It would release Soviet Russia to complete the "neutralization" of all Europe down to the Pyrenees. She would be free then to absorb the Middle East, the rest of Southeast Asia and, within a few years, Africa.

How long would America hold out then?

Our Washington policy has, on balance, been one uninterrupted compliance with Soviet ambitions ever since 1945. We know we have had our Alger Hisses and Harry Dexter Whites, just as Britain now knows—too late—that she has had her Burgesses and Macleans. But, now at the time when our "liberals," through activities like the Fund for the Republic, are making supreme efforts to discourage all further investigation of communism in America, we have every reason to believe that this country is saturated with communist spies and communist sympathizers.

Worse than all else, there are, we fear, a growing number of businessmen and other citizens who are beginning to think the Soviet government will carry through its plan to conquer the entire world and who want to be on the "winning side," when it has happened.

Few real Americans have been in on any plan to bring about such a danger as exists today. But many, including some of our highest officials and otherwise intelligent citizens, have weakly permitted themselves to be duped by the crafty architects of Soviet designs. Dean Clarence Manion, in his broadcast of October 2, says in substance that many businessmen by neglect of threats to the nation, are merely selling themselves down the river.

Our weak Washington policy, costly as it has been in men and treasure, is today permitting the Soviets to lie us Americans into slavery, just as surely as Roosevelt, according to Clare Booth Luce, "lied us into war" in 1941.

We have given European countries roughly 50 billion dollars since 1945. Billions went into the subsidizing of the Socialist government of Britain. Billions were spent in France and Italy in such a way as to strengthen communism. Hundreds of millions went to Yugoslavia, in the vain belief that she had broken with Moscow. Hundreds of millions more went to Greece and Turkey and were spent with good effect; though now, due to communist intrigue, Greece and Turkey are in a bitter feud over Cyprus—a feud that is of course communist inspired.

Even the New York Times, on October 10, 1955, lists many disappointments felt in Washington over the failure of our billions to win good will. America has almost nothing to show for the sacrifices she has made for these various countries.

The outstanding fact is that the United Nations, touted to the skies as a device to bring peace, has produced war—as in Palestine. The UN has actually increased the chances of war because it has harbored communists and communist sympathizers in its eighteen-acre New York headquarters—men and women exempt from American law through their diplomatic immunity.

Not only has no benefit of consequence been accomplished by the United Nations that could not have been accomplished by ordinary diplomatic procedures, but the UN and its "specialized agencies" are obviously working to produce a world government in which the United States would be merely one of sixty or seventy members. If they are successful, liberty in America will simply disappear.

Those who have talked of collective security (incidentally a communist phrase) and the interdependence of nations (a phrase of our do-gooders and visionaries) must admit that their plans, even to the extent that they are sincere, have been something less than a total success for America. In fact, they have been a gigantic failure, just as the communist dupes who egged them on intended they should be.

There is no better illustration of the weakness we suffer from belonging to the UN than the fact that after the United States had almost won the Korean War, the UN did not let us complete that victory.

There is one course only open to the United States. We are approaching disaster—a disaster that would mean the actual enslavement of the American people. Few, if any of our "allies" have been of help to us. Nearly all of them have been a drain.

In our opinion, the free American Republic is destined to be extinguished, unless she at once takes heroic steps to save herself. These steps should be:

1. To withdraw completely from the United Nations and get the United Nations out of the United States. Let no one say this cannot be done—anything can be done that is needed to save America.

2. Let all subsidies to other nations, whether economic or military, be canceled, excepting to those countries like Spain, which can be absolutely depended upon to stand with us under all circumstances.

3. Let us cut off all trade with Soviet-controlled countries in whatever kind of goods.

4. Let us unleash not only Chiang Kai-shek in Formosa, but the South Koreans under Syngman Rhee. Let us supply them with material at any time they are ready to launch an attack. Supplying other nations with material is one of the most effective things Soviet Russia does.

5. Let us cut out waste and unnecessary public spending, following recommendations in the Hoover report—really cut it out.

The idea that this nation can stand indefinitely a 60-odd billion dollar budget is folly. With this budget and a 280 billion dollar debt on our backs, where would we be if we became involved in another war?

Since 1919 Soviet officials have said they are out to conquer the entire world. They have never retracted that statement. Nothing that has happened runs contrary to it—not even since the famous Geneva Conference where Ike, Bulganin and Krushchev "smiled." An avalanche moves slowly at first. But, once well-started, it is impossible to stop.

If the American Government does not now realize the truth about Soviet intentions, it presently will be too late to do anything.

WILLS ARE IMPORTANT

If you wish to provide for carrying on this patriotic work, when making your will be sure to name the beneficiary correctly.

Lately, one of our friends who wished to help preserve freedom in the Country they loved, left one thousand dollars to me personally. The American Jewish Congress (Zionist Political group) proceeded to attach this for Rabbi Prinz, as part of the $30,000 judgement they maneuvered against me.

I wish my friends a long and happy life, but we will have to go when our Lord feels our time is up. What is more important than providing for continuance of this educational Crusade? Large sums of money left to relatives will not be of much value when our Country is under the same dictatorship which now rules half the population of the world. There will not be any Churches either.

When I go I cannot leave anything to the Christian Educational Association. Twenty-six thousand and over one hundred thousand dollars in time, no salary is my contribution.

If you are so inclined, include in your will, just,

Of course he did not equal F.D.R.'s record of turning millions over to Communism.

Both MENDES-FRANCE and FAURE are leaders in the Radical Party.

MEMORABILIA

MEANING OF JUDAISM IN TWO SENTENCES

It is tragic, indeed, that until now so many honest and intelligent men still refuse to believe, that the growing might of the Organized International Jewry presents a deadly threat to the Christian Western Civilization. As a rule, those few who try to open the eyes of the public on this evil, are treated as raving anti-semitic maniacs who deserve nothing better but a cell in a lunatic asylum.

Without delving into the turbid and unwholesome waters of the Babylonian Talmud, or bringing forth the testimony of the "Protocols," which, as many insist, are nothing but clumsy forgeries, let us, simply, go to the next library, open the volume of the famous "Encyclopaedia Britannica" on the word "JUDAISM" and see what kind of clarifying informations we can get there on this subject.

Now it must be noted, that for about two centuries—since 1768, to be exact—this Enc. has been used all over the English-speaking world as an inexhaustive source of "Information & Education," and quite a few people are in habit to treat its passages with nearly the same reverence as the men of religion treat the Scriptures. It is quite natural, consequently, that the Jews did not miss the opportunity to infiltrate the pages of this Enc. and to use it as a vehicle of their own propaganda and subtle insinuations, resorting occasionally to the falsification of the historical facts in order to make them suit better their Jewish purposes. It may be taken for granted, that all what is said there about Jewish religion, history, culture, etc. was most carefully checked and re-checked by the responsible Jewish leaders and fully approved by them before the material went into print. To avoid any misstatements, all those articles are written by the prominent Jews themselves, which everyone who cares may prove by looking into the index of the Enc. contributors.

Therefore in the article "JUDAISM," (1953 Ed.) written by Herbert Loewe, lecturer in Rabbinic Hebrew, Oxford University, the following two sentences should attract a particular attention of the non-Jewish readers: "ONE OF THE CARDINAL PRINCIPLES" (of Judaism) "IS THE BELIEF IN THE DIVINE CHOICE OF THE JEWS TO PREACH GOD'S MESSAGE" and, "JUDAISM LOOKS FORWARD TO THE DAY WHEN ITS TEACHING WILL BE ACCEPTED UNIVERSALLY".

The meaning of both sentences is crystal-clear: the modern Jews did NOT renounce the claim of their ancestors of being the "Chosen Race," superior to all other nations, which, eventually, they hope to convert to Judaism and rule over them as their sole spiritual leaders. Can be there any other interpretations of those two most positive and unequivocal statements? As it appears, there could be none.

clear: the modern Jews did NOT renounce the claim of their ancestors of being the "Chosen Race," superior to all other nations, which, eventually, they hope to convert to Judaism and rule over them as their sole spiritual leaders. Can be there any other interpretations of those two most positive and unequivocal statements? As it appears, there could be none.

If however, we take into consideration that in 3,500 years of its existence, Judaism completely failed to proselytize the world, and that this religion has at present, about fifteen millions of adherents only, practically all of them Jews, then the most natural question arises: HOW will be fulfilled the hope of converting the remaining 2,513 millions of the world population to Judaism? Since the past history most conclusively proved that Judaism as such has no appeal to the human souls, would it not be too optimistic to believe, that in our age of general decline of the religious feelings in the masses, the Jews would be able to persuade the world to accept their utterly uninspiring teachings, thickly covered with the barnacles of ancient superstitions and dead traditions?

The Jews are not so naive, of course; they know that Judaism may have the chance to be accepted as the world religion only if the existing religions, traditions and national sentiments are fully and completely eradicated; then, perhaps, this spiritual vacuum may be filled gradually with the Jewish teachings imposed from above by the new International Rulers, approximately in the same way as those teachings were imposed in the Eighth Century, on the Khazar tribe by their Khans who had been converted to Judaism by Jewish preachers.

In this work of levelling the ground for Judaism, the modern Jews rely heavily upon two "International Bulldozers"—Communism and the UN—the activities of which the Jews incessantly try to boost and to control. Although, being themselves fiercely individualistic and nationalistic by nature, the Jews should feel nothing but aversion to those two movements.

The very place where those two sentences were published guarantees the fact, that they represent even now the fundamental beliefs of the Jewish race. Actually, they are the keys to all Jewish problems of the past and present ages; and if the Jews would sincerely renounce those beliefs, then their assimilation with other nations and peaceful co-existence would be resolved then and there.

But would they remain the Jews then? That is the question!

No one should be tempted to conclude, however, that the Jews adopted Communism because they themselves wanted to live under its regime. Communism was to the Jews an opportune weapon in their centuries-old battle against Christ and His Church. It was a chance to set up that kingdom of this world which they have sought since the time they rejected the spiritual kingdom offered them by Jesus.

Communism can never be defeated until we recognize it for what it is. Therefore, we print a portion of the overwhelming, factual indictment of the Jews as the motivating and sustaining force behind the Communist movement.

1. Karl Marx and Frederick Engels, the authors of the Communist Manifesto, and the codifiers of all previous Communist thought, were both Jews.

2. Concerning the "trial revolution" which was staged by the Communists in Russia in 1905, as a preliminary to the successful one in 1917, the New York Zionist paper, The Maccabean, wrote, "The Revolution in Russia is a Jewish revolution...Jews are the most active revolutionists in the Tsar's Empire."

3. Of the fifty-nine members of the Central Committee of the Politburo, which ruled Russia immediately after the Revolution of 1917, fifty-six were Jews.

4. The British White Paper on Bolshevism, presented to Parliament in April, 1919, by order of King George V, contained the following statement: "The immediate suppression of Bolshevism is the greatest issue now before the world...Unless Bolshevism is nipped in the bud immediately, it is bound to spread in one form or another over Europe and the whole world, as it is organized and worked by Jews who have no nationality and whose one object is to destroy for their own ends the existing order of things."

5. The American Jew, Jacob Schiff, senior partner in the Jewish banking firm of Kuhn, Loeb and Company, financed the printing of Communist propaganda leaflets and arranged for their distribution throughout the Russian Army immediately before the "trial revolution" of 1905. This same American Jew openly boasted, in 1917, that without his financial support, the Communist revolution could never have succeeded in Russia.

6. One of the first official acts of the Communist government of Russia, just one week after it came to power, was to declare anti-semitism a punishable offense against the state, on the grounds that it was "counter-revolution."

7. American Jewry's celebrated leader, the late Rabbi Stephen Wise, remarked before his death, "Some call it Communism, I call it Judaism."

8. Previous to the 1917 revolution, the Jew, Leon Trotsky (real name, Bronstein) had been delivering speeches in Yiddish on the street corners of New York's lower East Side, advocating the overthrow of the American government. Just before the Russian Revolution broke, Trotsky arrived in Moscow with 276 of his East Side disciples.

9. The London Times for March 29, 1919 reported: "One of the most curious features of the Bolshevik movement is the high percentage of non-Russian elements among its leaders. Not less than seventy-five percent are Jews...Among the minor officials, the number is legion."

10. In January of 1933, the Jewish Chronicle of London boasted that, "More than one third of all Jews in Russia have become Soviet Officials." And two months later the Jewish B'nai B'rith Magazine of New York applauded conditions in the Soviet Union with the statement, "Under the new regime (Bolshevism) it is at last possible to be a real Jew."

11. In 1935-36, the Communist government's ambassadors to the following capitals were all Jews: Paris, London, Madrid, Istanbul, Athens, Brussels, Vienna, Tokyo, Oslo, Montevideo, Stockholm, Helsinki, Berlin, Riga and Prague.

12. The Jew, Bela Kun (real name, Cohen) led the Communist revolution in Hungary in the spring of 1919. He murdered twenty thousand Hungarians and crucified sixty-seven Catholic priests. Said Bishop Prohaszka, veteran of the Communist domination in Hungary, "We proclaim to the world that we cannot endure the indefinite Jewish usurpation, and we shall get rid of it."

13. In the February 4, 1937 issue of G. K.'s Weekly, the noted Catholic historian, Hilaire Belloc, wrote, "As for anyone who does not know that the present revolutionary Bolshevik movement in Russia is Jewish, I can only say that he must be a man who is taken in by the suppressions of our deplorable Press."

14. The most recent admitted-editor of the American Communist paper, the Daily Worker, is the Jew, John Gates (real name, Israel Ragenshtreif).

15. With even more readers than the Daily Worker, is the Morgen Freiheit of New York City, a Communist paper printed entirely in Yiddish.

16. In the Spanish civil war of the mid-thirties the anti-Franco "Loyalists" were organized and directed by Communist Jews, under the leadership of Moses Rosenberg and Bela Kun. An editorial printed in the Morgen Freiheit states quite clearly that, "The war that is fought today in Spain is wider than the Spanish territory. It is of life and death significance for the Jews of the world."

17. The New York Jew, Alexander Bittelman, said in his book, The Jewish People Face the Post-War World, published in 1945, "If not for the Red Army, there would be no Jews in Europe today, nor in Palestine, nor in Africa; and in the United States the length of our existence would be counted in days...The Soviet Union has saved the Jewish people."

18. Every time our government uncovers a nest of subversive Communists, the majority of those apprehended are invariably Jews. Examples: Eleven Communists, who formed what was called the "American Politburo," were arrested in the much-publicized Eugene Dennis Case; six of these eleven were Jews. Later taken into custody was the twenty-one man organization which had been formed to replace the previously arrested eleven. Of these twenty-one Communists, fourteen were Jews.

19. Of the famous "Hollywood Ten," who were convicted of contempt of Congress for refusing to explain their Communist connections, nine were Jews. Additional Hollywood Jews who have been cited as Communist-sympathizers include: Charlie Chaplin (real name, Thonstein), Edward G. Robinson (real name, Emanuel Goldberg), Melvyn Douglas (real name, Hesselberg), Douglas Fairbanks (real name, Ullman), Judy Holiday (real name, Tuvim), Danny Kaye (real name, Kaminsky).

20. The supreme leader of the Communist party in the United States (the boss behind Earl Browder, Eugene Dennis, etc.) was the Jew, Gerhardt Eisler. Chief assistant to Eisler was the Jew, J. Peters (real name, Goldberger).

21. Since World War II, eleven Communists have been convicted of espionage activities in the United States. Ten of these were Jews.

22. The report of the Canadian Royal Commission on Communist activities, in 1946, read, in part, "It is significant that a number of documents from the Russian Embassy specifically note 'Jew' or 'Jewess' in entries on their relevant Canadian agents or prospective agents, showing that the Russian Fifth Column leaders attach particular significance to this matter."

23. A raid by Federal agents on the Pittsburgh Jewish Cultural Center in July of 1953 revealed that the place was the Communist training headquarters for western Pennsylvania. And in April of this year, another such raid uncovered the fact that the Miami Jewish Cultural Center was actually a front for the distribution of Communist propaganda.

24. The Jews can always be counted on to oppose any curbs or restrictions which are directed against Communists or Communism. Example: When the present Jewish Senator from New York, Herbert Lehman, was Governor of the State, a bill was passed resoundingly by the legislature prohibiting any Communist to hold office in the State government. This was not hypothetical legislation. The bill was aimed at known Communists then holding high positions in New York State. When the bill arrived at Governor Lehman's desk, he promptly vetoed it.

25. Similarly, the Jews will always attack any man who shows himself to be a true and determined enemy of Communists. This is done not only by individual Jews, but with equal dependability by the powerful Jewish organizations, whose attacks on anti-Communism are always by way of saving the public from "Hysteria!" or "Demagoguery!" or "Witch hunts!"

Occasionally, when a man has been particularly effective in fighting Communists, the Jews will even label him as "anti-semitic"—thereby revealing the Communist-Jewish tie-up which for so many years it has been their policy to keep well hidden. Example: Recently, when forty-two employees at Fort Monmouth were fired as loyalty risks, and thirty-eight of the forty-two turned to be Jews, the Jewish Anti-Defamation League screamed, "Anti-semitism!" at the American Army in general and at the responsible officer in particular.

The foregoing twenty-five items are but a sampling of the irrefutable case against the Jews. But in one final matter we must caution our readers. Though the Jews are behind Communism, they are not committed to it. The cause to which they are essentially bound is not pro-Communism. It is, rather, anti-Christianity. Communism is merely their weapon of the moment.

Therefore, it is possible that Jews will be seen opposing Communism. Should this happen, it may be that such opposition is only a diversionary move, calculated to throw the Gentiles off the track. It may be, that the Jews will have found that Communism has lost its effectiveness, and they are dropping it in favor of some new, more useful tool. In that event, Communism would decline into being just another political-economic movement, an abandoned child obliged to fend for itself.

As long as Communism remains an international menace, however, totally unexplainable by political or economic standards, an incidious, rapacious enemy, more terrible to the Church even than to the state, then we may be sure that the Jews are still behind the Communist movement.

SPOILED THE BLOOD

"We (Jews) have spoiled the blood of all the races of Europe. Taken as a whole, everything to-day is Jewified. Our senses are alive in all the races. Our spirit reigns over the world. We are the Lords; all that is Might to-day is child of our spirit."

Let the Goyim hate us! Let them drive us out! Let our enemies laugh at our physical weakness. We cannot be driven out any more. We have eaten ourselves into the peoples. We have vitiated the races (of the Europeans). We have tarnished and broken their power; we have made everything of theirs foul, rotten, decomposed, decayed. — Dr. Kurt Munzer in his book "The Way of Zion" published in Germany in 1912.

Time Is Most Valuable

As you reach old age, you will look back and place a greater value on your time. You will ask yourself, what you have done with your life that is pleasing to God, and a help to your people.

For several years, a number of good Christians have been giving several hours a week, volunteer work, to Common Sense. They realize they are contributing much in behalf of Christianity and the future welfare of their Country. They are happy in their service for freedom in our wonderful Country.

The nature of our work makes it unprofitable:—No Advertising—low Subscription rate. Ours is a patriotic Christian Crusade. We are growing and do not have the personnel to carry out the many patriotic projects laid in our lap. If you are a patriotic Christian, who is concerned about the future of your Country, you will be happy cooperating with us in our educational crusade to preserve our Constitution and keep our Republic form of government.

Surely, we are careful to prevent a Marxist agent from working with us. During ten years of publication none have been successful.

If our office in Union is accessible to you, there is a variety of work you will find interesting and educational. You may choose your hours and days. Perhaps you have some special talent that should be in use. Every one can do something. If you are in another State there are ways you can cooperate and help strengthen and build Common Sense so as to inform sufficient number to create patriotic, public sentiment and stop this trend to destroy our Government.

If you are inspired to give volunteer help, please write me today.
